"WE MEAN TO RESIST"

AN TAOISEACH ON PARTITION ISSUE

SO far their State had been preserved from the calamities of actual conflict, and they prayed that it might continue so to the end, said Mr. de Valera in a broadcast message to the Irish race at home and abroad from Radio Eireann last night.

Unfortunately, continued Mr. de Valera, millions of their race throughout the world, who were accustomed to celebrate St. Patrick's Day with them—their people in Britain, the United States, Canada, Australia, Africa, as well as those in the Continent of Europe, in Asia and the islands of the Pacific, were involved.

Speaking in English, Mr. de Valera said that to-day a mighty struggle was in progress, the outcome of which would determine how men in many lands shall live for decades, perhaps for centuries. What chances and what fortunes the years just ahead might hold for them in Ireland no one could tell. But of this they could be sure, that ultimately the future would be what they themselves would make it—by their courage, wisdom, foresight, energy or their lack of these.

"Our nation's first reliance under God, must be on the determination of its sons to defend it." Mr. de Valera proceeded: With our limited resources we need every man of military age in the Defence Forces. If we are attacked, he proceeded, we mean to resist and our resistance must be no token resistance. We owe it to our children and our children's children, as well as to the dead generations, to preserve what we have won.

"WRONG OF PARTITION"

I cannot help but deplore the disastrous partition which cuts off the See of Patrick, the scenes of his first labours and his final resting place from the main body of the nation. This unnatural dismemberment at once stands in the way of the most effective defence of this island—a unified defence organised by those best fitted to defend it, the Irish people themselves—and in the way also of that full friendship with the people of the neighbouring island, which it is their interest, as it is ours, to secure and to foster. How the absence of that full friendship may affect the destinies of both peoples I shall not try to estimate; but, as I said on this day two years ago, nobody gains by the wrong of partition, neither the country which was originally responsible for it nor the country which immediately suffers by it. Next to the proper preparation of our military defences is the preparation necessary to make sure that we shall have adequate supplies of food and fuel. For both we must look to the rural community. I am confident they will be generous in contributing their share to the national safety. In the matter of fuel it was not so easy to meet their needs; but here also the full utilisation of the native resources of coal, timber and turf would go far to prevent undue hardship."

JAVA NAVAL BATTLE

JAPAN'S OVERWHELMING NUMBERS

Demanding more information about the sea battles off Java, which would make clear the great odds against which British and Allied ships fought, Lord Strabolgi, in the House of Lords, yesterday, drew attention to the statement of the Prime Minister of Holland, that the Japanese forces comprised 14 cruisers, five aircraft-carriers, 55 destroyers and 25 submarines.

"The Admiralty communiqué," said Lord Strabolgi, "errs on the side of reticence. It has to be most carefully read to realise the tremendous odds to which our vessels were exposed, and which shed even greater lustre on our feat in driving them away."

Lord Snell, in reply, said that if Lord Strabolgi asked for a supplementary statement by the Admiralty on the subject, further information would, perhaps, be supplied.

AUSTRALIA'S DEFENCE

GENERAL MACARTHUR TAKES COMMAND

EARLY JAPANESE ATTACK EXPECTED

SIXTY-ONE years old General Macarthur has landed in Australia to take over supreme command of the Allied forces in that region. His command will include the Philippines, where he had been G.O.C.

Observers in Port Moresby regarded widespread Japanese air reconnaissance over the area as the likely forerunner of all-out blows against New Guinea.

In Burma Japanese concentrations are reported on the road to Prome.

Units of United States Air and Ground Forces are now on Australian soil in "considerable numbers," says a Washington communiqué, and seasoned R.A.A.F. personnel, returned from the Far East, are preparing for the defence of the country.—(Reuter.)

JAPANESE IN NEW GUINEA

WASHINGTON, Tuesday.—General MacArthur has arrived in Australia to assume supreme command of the Australian region as well as the Philippines. He transferred his headquarters from the Philippines to Australia at the direction of President Roosevelt.

The War Department communiqué says:—"Australia.—General Douglas MacArthur arrived in Australia by 'plane to-day. He is accompanied by Mrs. MacArthur, his sons, and Chief of Staff, Major-General Richard K. Sutherland; Brigadier-General Harold H. George, of the Air Corps, and several other Staff officers. He will be supreme commander in that region, including the Philippines, in accordance with a request of the Australian Government."

Major-General Wainwright will carry on in General MacArthur's place in immediate command of the field forces of the Phillppines.—(Reuter.)

Reuter's correspondent says:—"Nothing since the war began has thrilled Americans half as much as the story of General MacArthur's arrival in Australia. The news flashed through Washington like an electric current, completely removing the gloom caused by the uninterrupted Japanese advance and Saturday's news of the heavy Allied naval losses. . . . .

"The public feels that he is the one man able to lead the American forces to victory."

FULL-SCALE ATTACK

CANBERRA, Tuesday.—The official attitude towards the renewal of the bombing of Darwin was summed up by a Government spokesman with the statement:—"You know that the Japanese tactic is to bomb and then land." Darwin is now a citadel without civilians, and the official view is that the Japanese will attempt a full-scale attack before long.—(Reuter.)

The Allied forces in the Torres Strait Islands are expecting a strong Japanese offensive in this area hourly, says the Port Moresby correspondent of the Sydney Telegraph. "If the enemy gained control of the area it would cut the sea route from Australian east coast cities to Darwin and Port Moresby.—(Reuter.)

MORE LANDINGS

LONDON, Tuesday.—Quoting reports from Japanese sources, Ankara Radio said that the Japanese had now landed in New Guinea a total of two divisions, which were being employed in the attack against Port Moresby.—(Associated Press.)

Paris Radio said that a large Japanese Fleet, consisting of several cruisers, aircraft carriers, and 50 destroyers and transports, had been sighted off the western coast of Australia.—(Associated Press.)

BURMA BATTLE

NEW DELHI, Tuesday.—The communiqué from Army Headquarters, Burma, states:—"Chinese forces have made contact with Siamese patrols and killed 100 enemy soldiers. Chinese patrols contacted 300 Siamese near the frontier south-east of Mong Tung. The Chinese killed 100 enemy soldiers, and the remainder retreated. On the Prome road enemy patrols have not yet made contact with our troops, though certain concentrations have been reported on the roads to the south."

U.S. SHIP SUNK

WASHINGTON, Tuesday.—A medium-sized U.S. merchantman had been torpedoed off the Atlantic coast, the Navy Department announced.

Rear-Admiral Andrews has been assigned to exclusive duty as Commander of the Eastern sea front, says the Navy Department. He is being replaced as Commander of the Third Naval District, New York, by Rear-Admiral Marquart.—(Reuter.)

American forces have repulsed a sudden Japanese raid on the U.S. lines on the Bataan Peninsula, says a War Department communiqué. The port of Cebu in the Philippines has again been shelled by a Japanese destroyer.—(Reuter.)

148,000 'PLANES

WASHINGTON, Tuesday.—President Roosevelt announced that Congress would be asked to-morrow to appropriate £4,394,750,000 for 'planes for the United States Army.

President Roosevelt said that Mr. Harold Smith, the Director of the Budget, had informed him that this huge appropriation, together with previous ones for 'planes, would provide for the procurement of 148,000 aircraft.

WALL STREET PLEASED

News of the transfer of General Macarthur was cheered by the noon-day crowds in New York's financial district and by masses of spectators lining Fifth avenue to watch the annual St. Patrick's Day parade. The Stock Market, for long grimly depressed, rose as much as two points, while Australian Bonds immediately jumped three to four points.—(Reuter.)

MOURNE MOUNTAIN 'PLANE CRASH

SIX OF THE CREW KILLED

A Wellington bomber crashed on the western slopes of Thomas Mountain, one of the lesser peaks of the Mourne range, near Newcastle, County Down, on Monday afternoon, six of the occupants being killed.

The rear gunner, who had some burns, was the only survivor.

THREE DEAD AND 26 INJURED IN ENGLAND

People who ran to help the occupants of a 'plane, three of whom were killed, when it crashed on a bungalow were themselves injured when the petrol tank blew up. The 'plane was an air transport auxiliary taxi, and the crash occurred on Sunday. The pilot, Flying Officer Graham Lever, and Third Officer Bridget Hill and Third Officer Bessie Sayers, both of the A.T.A., were killed. A third woman A.T.A. officer in the 'plane, Third Officer P. D. Duncan, was injured. Twenty-six other people were burned, some of them seriously.

It is understood that Miss Duncan was thrown clear of the house as the 'plane crashed, and escaped with cuts and bruises.

BRITISH WAR MACHINES' DEFECTS

VIEWS OF SIR ROGER KEYES

Admiral of the Fleet Sir Roger Keyes, M.P., at Holborn, London, yesterday, said: "The Navy is under the control of a First Lord, who, when he held the office for a short time previously, did more harm to the Navy than it has ever suffered before, by forcing the limitations of the London Naval Treaty of 1930 on a weak Board of Admiralty, thus crippling the Navy for several years, and leaving it to Japan to seize the sea power that we were too feeble to hold.

"The provision of labour is in the hands of a great trade union leader, who, although he organised the greatest strike that ever paralysed the country's industry for some time, is now apparently unable to prevent strikes or trade union interference with the war output."

In a reference to the Prime Minister, Sir Roger Keyes said: "I feel that brave speeches and long catalogues of what the country is going to produce will not win the war, unless the whole process of the war machine is thoroughly overhauled, speeded up and supercharged. No one can pretend that it is working anything like one hundred per cent. at present anywhere, except in the air, on and under the sea, and on the battlefronts overseas.

TO ATTACK NEAR EAST

CAIRO, Tuesday.—Axis preparations in the Balkans and Ægean Islands for an attack on the Near East have been intensified. There have been some troop movements in Bulgaria and considerable naval and air movements around Greece, Crete and the Dodecanese. The German plan apparently is to deliver a blow at the Near East before opening a big offensive against the Russians in May or June. The Germans have also installed extensive facilities in the Black Sea area for moving Caucasus oil into Germany.—(The Associated Press.)

According to a Montevideo despatch the Uruguayan Government has ordered the seizure of the German steamer, Tacoma, as a reprisal for the torpedoing of the Montevideo.—(Reuter.)

SMOLENSK FRONT SUCCESSES

RUSSIAN TANKS BREAK THROUGH

MOSCOW, Tuesday.—Hard on the heels of his successes north and south of the German lifeline on the central front, General Zhukov has struck another blow at the most easterly positions of the German "pocket" which still checks the Russian advance to Smolensk.

While his pincer arms threaten to "sew up" the open Western end of the bulge at any moment, he is reported to have captured a place designated "P," which is believed to be Pysjovka, ten miles east of Vyazma, on the great highway along which his troops are advancing from Gjatsk.

Elsewhere on the Smolensk front Russian tanks have broken through formidable German fortifications and scored important successes on a number of sectors.

From Southern Russia there is little fresh news of the Red Army's effort to expel the invaders from Kharkov, Taganrog and the positions in between east of the Dnieper, as well as from the Eastern Crimea, before the spring.

Unofficial reports say that German losses in the Donetz Basin now are 2,000 men daily, and that their counter-attacks are being launched with desperation in face of the carefully-planned blows of the Soviet troops.

Around Staraya Russa the great land and air conflict progressed another step towards the annihilation of General Von Busch's encircled 16th Army, when Soviet troops captured one of the "most important points" of resistance—designated "N"—on the Southern summit of a commanding height. German efforts were directed towards keeping the Russians down in the valley, and two divisions were concentrated for the purpose along a sector less than eight miles in length. Russian troops stormed the village and captured it after a fierce battle, in which German killed and wounded totalled 1,500, and no less than 85 guns—their number is an indication of the importance attached to the position—were captured, together with much other material. All German attempts to relieve the beleaguered army with fresh troops rushed up from Latvia have failed.

German accounts dwell largely upon the weather, and suggest that Russian successes have been achieved only by the utilisation of overwhelming numbers. One High Command report said that east of Orel no less than 59 attacks were launched in the first week of March.—(Press Association and Reuter.)

GERMAN ACCOUNTS

BERLIN, Tuesday.—Soviet attacks yesterday against a German infantry division south-east of Lake Ilmen are reported by German Radio, which claims that they were beaten off. The Radio added:—"German dive-bombers attacked Soviet artillery positions on the Kerch Peninsula and on the Sebastopol front. Rumanian artillery fire broke up Soviet preparations for an attack."

North of Taganrog, the German announcer said, the Russians had made heavy armed attempts to break through the German lines.

The German News Agency claims German successes on the central front, where, in a violent snowstorm and 45 degrees of frost, two Russian rifle divisions and four cavalry divisions are said to have been severely handled and forced to withdraw. Strong forces attempting to pierce German positions were repulsed with Soviet losses of over 10,000 killed and 2,000 prisoners.—(Reuter.)

TANKS ENGAGED IN LIBYA

Tuesday's British communiqué from Cairo said:—"There was increased enemy movement in the forward area throughout Monday. A strong enemy column, including tanks, moved forward in the Cherima area, but withdrew on the approach of our mobile forces. A successful action by a mixed force resulted in casualties being inflicted on the enemy west of Cherima. Our Air Forces have successfully countered enemy air activity in the forward area."

PRESIDENT SIGNS AMENDED CONSTITUTION

In accordance with Section 5 of Article 25 of the Constitution, the President yesterday signed the text of the Constitution embodying the amendments enacted by the first and second Amendment of the Constitution Acts, 1939 and 1941, respectively. The amended text was prepared under the supervision of the Taoiseach, and was authenticated by his signature and that of the Chief Justice before presentation to the President. The Taoiseach was present at Arus an Uachtarain when the text was signed.

HOLIDAY ACCIDENTS

Mrs. Mabel Juliet De Vere Forde, 37a Lower Beechwood avenue, Dublin, sustained fatal injuries when she was involved in a 'bus collision at Stillorgan road yesterday evening. Mrs. Forde was cycling in the direction of Dublin at the time with her sister, Miss B. Dudgeon, and the 'bus was going in the same direction. She was brought to the Royal City of Dublin Hospital, but was dead on arrival at that institution. She was a sister of Major J. Hume Dudgeon.

Thomas McMahon (7), of Lower Buckingham street, Dublin, was struck by the engine of an incoming train while playing near Clontarf railway bridge and was fatally injured.

BRITISH MUST LEAVE

All British residents in the coastal districts of Morocco, including women and children, have been ordered by the French Government to leave immediately for the interior. It was known that such an order had been made recently, but there is no confirmation of reports that British male subjects between the ages of eighteen and forty-one—that is to say, of military age—are to be interned.—(Reuter.)

2,400 U.S. ARRESTS

WASHINGTON, Tuesday.—Japanese, German and Italian Army and Navy uniforms, maps and photographs of military areas were among the articles seized by police during searches of premises belonging to over 8,000 enemy nationals, announced the U.S. Attorney-General. About 2,400 enemy aliens had been arrested for being in possession of forbidden articles, including guns, ammunition, swords, daggers, knives, dirks, sabres and dynamite.—(Reuter.)

KENNEL CLUB COMING-OF-AGE MONSTER SHOW

THE coming-of-age of the Irish Kennel Club's annual show at Ballsbridge yesterday was much in the nature of a re-union. There was a large attendance, made more cheerful by a good day.

The arrangements were carried through faultlessly and over all reigned the amplified voice of the Rev. E. Savell Hicks. How the voice held out for a whole day is a mystery, but it never flagged in announcing winners, calling people to their places in the rings, or making witty remarks about things in general. The club has reason to congratulate itself on the show, which attracted 618 dogs in all, with a total entry of 1,423 in 315 classes. Patrons looked in vain for the breed novelty that has been a feature of other shows. The highest breed entry was that of the cocker spaniels—65.

The obedience test as usual attracted a very large audience, but the entry—five dogs—was disappointing. Dr. W. J. Dawson, the judge, made the competition more interesting still by giving the audience hints on dog-training, and demonstrating the right way with the dogs entered. These included a couple of Labrador retrievers and a cocker spaniel pup in the early stages of training.

BELT-TIGHTENING IN BRITAIN

NEW RATIONING OF CLOTHES AND FUEL

BRITAIN'S new belt-tightening measures for the austere living era, foreshadowed by Sir Stafford Cripps, were disclosed yesterday by Mr. Hugh Dalton, President of the Board of Trade, when he announced that a 25 per cent. cut is to be made in the clothes ration, and that a comprehensive fuel rationing scheme is being planned to include coal, gas and electricity.

Sir John Anderson, Lord President of the Council, broadcast the statement that "other measures will have to follow," and said that 60 per cent. of Britain's resources are being spent in the national effort. The new restrictions, he said, were part of a plan for putting more power behind the war effort.

CUT IN CLOTHES RATION

The 25 per cent. cut in the British clothes ration will come into force on June 1st. Meanwhile, they are advised to wear out what they have until the war is over. There is, however, no reason why the people should be shabbily dressed, as the reduced ration will allow for the replacement of necessary clothes worn out. The civilian clothing ration is to be reduced from the basic rate of 66 coupons a year to one of slightly over 51.

Men will have to do with fewer pockets, and double-breasted suits and trousers turn-ups are to go. Special steps will be taken to meet the case of women in industry. Extra coupons will again be issued for children. A Mayfair tailor has said that "everyone will be wearing utility clothes before long."

Under the scheme of fuel rationing, including coal, gas and electricity, to be introduced, the British Government's aim is to raise enough coal to supply the consumer demands and to set aside an additional 20,000,000 tons of stocks in readiness for the winter.

The Rev. Brother J. A. Walker, Christian Brothers, Baldoyle, whose death was announced recently.

U.S. STRIKES BANNED

WASHINGTON, Tuesday. — Mr. William Green, President of the American Federation of Labour, and Mr. Philip Murray, Chairman of the Congress of Industrial Organisation, who called at the White House with members of the Labour War Board, disclosed that after an hour's conference with President Roosevelt it was agreed that wage rates and standards would be fixed without resort to strikes or interruption to production.

SPORTING FIXTURES

Representatives of a prominent sporting control body will meet Mr. Lemass, Minister for Supplies, this week to discuss with him the revision of its sporting fixtures and a reduction in the programme in order to eliminate the need for road transport as far as possible.

Dog Lovers Will Eat Less Bread

TWO hundred new members accepted NBBL badges yesterday at the Irish Kennel Club Dog Show, held at the R.D.S. Grounds, Ballsbridge, Dublin.

The badges were on display at Messrs. Hely's stand. They were in great demand during the forenoon, and the proportion of the attendance enrolling in the League at this largest and most fashionable of Eire's canine shows indicates that NBBL is receiving the support for which the Minister for Supplies asked at its inauguration.

Many postal applications for badges were received from all over the country yesterday. One, from Waterford, shows that people are understanding the obligation involved by entering the

HOW TO JOIN

Write to NBBL, Irish Times, Dublin, enclosing a stamped and addressed envelope, and the badge will be sent you free by return. Or call at this office for your badge.

Wearing of the badge shows that you have agreed:—

To eat bread at breakfast only, or at any other one meal daily.

To eat no more than your normal amount of bread at that one meal, less if possible.

To avoid the wastage, directly or indirectly, of any wheaten food whatsoever.

To wear the badge for so long as you observe the rules.

To encourage others to join the League.

League—that of eating bread at one meal a day only each day. It reads: "Please send me one NBBL badge, as I intend to refrain from eating bread at more than one meal a day. The title 'Bread-for-Breakfast-Only' rather put me off in the beginning, as I feel I can do without it at all other meals, but am used to having it at breakfast. Now that point has been made perfectly clear to me."

Other letters, received from people who voluntarily put their daily diet on a NBBL basis upon the announcement of the starting of the League, reveal that "knife-and-fork meals" are being adopted generally as a solution to the dietetic problems which membership brings.

One family of two adults and three children, which used to consume two large and two small loaves a day, has reduced this to two small loaves. "We are," writes the mother, "using very little bread, even at teatime, which has always been our chief bread-eating meal of the day. At breakfast we are substituting potato-cakes for bread, frying them in the pan with whatever else we are having. We now take a two o'clock dinner, at which we do not use wheat food of any sort. A knife-and-fork meal of some kind at both tea and supper has been our solution, and, although it is sometimes difficult to plan these from a nourishing point of view, I have found this to be the only way possible to keep to the idea of the League."

BELFAST PROTESTANT HOMES RAIDED

PROTEST IN HOUSE OF COMMONS

The police raids on the premises of the Ulster Union Club, Belfast, and the homes of Protestants in the city were the subject of questions and protests in the Northern Parliament yesterday.

Mr. T. J. Campbell, K.C. (N.) asked the Minister whether any person on the club premises was detained and anything calculated to justify the raid was found on the premises. He also asked if the membership of the club comprised gentlemen, mainly Protestant, in literary, business and professional life, who advocated the development of an Irish outlook and friendship between the North and South.

Sir Dawson Bates—No persons were detained on the premises of the club when it was raided, nor were any seditious documents found. Events leading to the raid were the discovery of arms and a large quantity of seditious literature in the garage and home of a person who admitted that he was a member of the I.R.A. and also of the Ulster Union Club. In a search of another house occupied by members of the Ulster Union Club the police found a duplicating machine, a typewriter, parts of a printing machine, a subversive document in course of production on the duplicating machine, and a number of articles in manuscript which obviously emanated from I.R.A. sources and were intended for duplication.

STATEMENT BY CLUB

The Committee of the Ulster Union Club, presided over by Captain Denis Ireland, has published a statement denouncing the methods adopted by the Northern Government "to break up a Protestant organisation devoted to the cause of union between North and South, and, therefore, obnoxious to the Government at Stormont."

REVENUE WILL FALL ON PETROL CUT

SINCE motoring restrictions, mainly in the form of curtailment of petrol supplies, came into operation following the outbreak of the war, the number of motor vehicles on Irish roads decreased by nearly 20,000, writes an Irish Times reporter.

In 1939 there were 73,000 registered vehicles. This year that number fell to 55,000, those principally affected being private cars, of which there now are 14,000 in commission. With the discontinuance of the petrol allowance in May next, the majority of these will be put off the roads, and the loss to the revenue will be at the rate of £140,000 per annum.

Having regard to the severity of the restrictions already imposed, the decline in the number of vehicles is not impressive, but the fall in mileage has been very considerable. Reactions to the latest bad news have varied from complete resignation to optimism. Most motorists expected the worst, and accept it without grumble; a number encourage the hope that the cessation of supplies in May will be a temporary measure, designed to enable the Government to accumulate stocks of kerosene and fuel oil for harvest purposes at the expense of the petrol quota for that month; while others still express annoyance at what they describe as an obvious waste of petrol.

GARAGES HARD HIT

Whatever happens, short of the end of the war, petrol allowances for private cars will not be the same again, and, with the private drivers off the roads, because motoring will be an uneconomic proposition, hundreds of the smaller firms and garages in the business will have to close down. Commercial transport might possibly keep a few of the larger firms going, but the great proportion of work done in garages, repair shops and engineering establishments was provided by the private car.

A number of people who are prominent in motoring circles said yesterday that there is not likely to be a complete stoppage of motoring in May because of the discontinuance of petrol allowances. Quite a number of people still have some petrol left in private tanks, and it is presumed that in these cases, as well as in the case of cars owned by doctors, clergymen, etc., the cars will be used for essential purposes. Having regard to the proposed curtailment of commercial supplies, it is likely that the "black market" in petrol, which sometimes ran the price up to as high as 10s. 6d. per gallon, will receive a death blow, for most of the "illicit" petrol was secured by saving on commercial transport requirements.

SOME COMPLAINTS

It is felt that in the interpretation of "essential purposes" the Government should make some allowance for such people as architects and engineers, who have to travel distances into the country to perform work of some national importance. Those people still are classified as private motorists. There is definite resentment among motorists at the preferential treatment extended to clergymen, city doctors, university professors, and teachers, and one motorist declared that in his own area alone there were several retired clergymen availing themselves of twice as much petrol as the average businessman for the "performance of their duties."

Another businessman complained of the use city doctors were making of their special supplies, saying that at one Dublin golf course last week he saw no fewer than twenty cars belonging to medical men. It was admitted by a doctor that the city doctors were all right on their allowance, but the country men, especially the dispensary doctors, were finding it difficult to make do even with an increased supply recently granted to them by the Minister. If their supply was cut, he said, there would be weeping and wailing, and they certainly could not do their work.

TRAWLER OVERDUE

The British Board of Admiralty announces that H.M. trawler Rosemonde (Lieutenant K. Galteland, R.N.R.) is overdue and must be considered lost.

BRITISH FIGHTS WITH E-BOATS

UNSUCCESSFUL ATTACK ON CONVOY

FIVE E-boats were sunk, and five more damaged—with one or more of these possibly sunk—by the British Navy and the Royal Air Force in the North Sea and the Channel within about 24 hours, the Admiralty disclosed last night in a communiqué giving details of a night to dawn battle on Sunday off the east coast, in which destroyers beat off an attack on a convoy.

The destroyer Vortigern was lost in the fight, but not a ship in the convoy was damaged. These actions were entirely separate from that in the English Channel on Saturday morning, when, as already announced, two E-boats were destroyed. "Thus, during the week-end," adds the communiqué, the enemy lost five E-boats, with two others damaged, apart from losses inflicted by the Royal Air Force.

"Saturday night was very dark, with no moon. The sea was calm," said the communiqué.

"Shortly before 9 p.m. E-boats attacked one of our convoys in the North Sea. No ship of the convoy was damaged, but the destroyer H.M.S. Vortigern (Lieut.-Commander R. S. Howlett, R.N.) was hit with two torpedoes and sank. The next-of-kin of casualties have been informed. The E-boats were engaged by the destroyers H. M. S. Holderness (Lieut. A. J. R. White, R.N.) and H.M.S. Wallace (Lieut.-Commander E. G. Heywood-Lonsdale, D.S.C., R.N.). One E-boat was sunk by H.M.S. Holderness, and H.M.S. Wallace damaged another.

"H.M.S. Guillemot (Lieut. S. R. Le H. Lombard-Hobson, R.N.) heard the explosion of the torpedoes and the gunfire, at once closed the scene of action, and then swept to the eastward in search of E-boats. A few minutes later H.M.S. Guillemot sighted an E-boat lying in wait, stalked it, and got within 50 yards without being seen. H.M.S. Guillemot then opened fire with every gun it could bear. The E-boat was hit amidships on the waterline by a 4-inch shell and by a large number of rounds from heavy machine-guns.

"At that moment another E-boat was sighted in a favourable position to attack H.M.S. Guillemot. H.M.S. Guillemot at once gave chase, but was unable to come up with the enemy owing to his superior speed. After chasing away this E-boat H.M.S. Guillemot returned, but could find no trace of the E-boat with which she had previously been in action, and it is considered that this boat was sunk.

OFF DUTCH COAST

"At 6.35 on Sunday morning, March 15th, three of our motor gunboats, under the command of Lieutenant H. R. Horne, R.N., intercepted an E-boat some nine miles off Ymuiden, the German base on the Dutch coast. The E-boat was at once heavily engaged, and when last seen was sinking by the bow.

"Later four E-boats approached from the eastward. One of our motor gunboats, commanded by Sub-Lieutenant P. A. R. Thompson, R.C.N.V.R., fought a running fight with three of these E-boats until all her ammunition was exhausted. She then withdrew. During this engagement one E-boat was severely damaged.

"All our motor gunboats returned safely.

"As has been announced by the Air Ministry, Spitfires later found the four E-boats, one of which was badly damaged. They attacked them and set one on fire and badly damaged the other three. Later other aircraft which went out to attack found no E-boats, but much wreckage and many bodies in the sea.

"In these engagements there was no loss of life in any of our motor gunboats or in H.M.S. Wallace, H.M.S. Holderness or H.M.S. Guillemot."

Two lifeboats put out from the east coast early on Sunday morning after the sea battle had been on some hours. After an eight-hour search they returned, having taken from the water 12 dead sailors from a British destroyer. One boat was in charge of Second Coxswain J. J. Davies.—(Press Association.)

VICHY, Tuesday. — The French cargo steamer Sainte Marcelle was torpedoed in the Mediterranean on Saturday by a submarine of unknown nationality. Two of the crew are missing.—(Reuter.)

A new kind of drapery store—with Everything on View

OPENS TO-MORROW

We've tried it out in Cork, in Limerick, in Waterford, and everywhere it's a tremendous success, so from to-morrow Dublin will have a new kind of drapery store—a store where shopping will be easier, quicker, and pleasanter, because all goods will be in plain view. No longer need you wait to be attended to, and then wait while goods are found, boxes opened, parcels unwrapped. All goods are in plain view, displayed so that you can handle and examine them as closely as you like. And this new selling plan is not only more satisfactory for you, but it also makes possible savings which are passed on in the form of lower prices. Prices on all lines will be very, very keen, but quality will be in every case ABSOLUTELY RELIABLE.

"Champagne"

the glorious NEW powder-shade by Coty

Here's beauty news indeed! A new powder shade by Coty is always an event of importance—"Champagne" is doubly so! It's the shade every woman has been waiting for—it's a shade that flatters every type, blonde or brunette! "Champagne" is a Coty triumph—"Air Spun", too. No more worries about what shade of powder can I use with which colour'—gay, vivacious "Champagne" harmonises with them all. What is more it's not only ideal for both dark and fair complexions, but is perfect for evening as well as daytime use.

"CHAMPAGNE" IS "AIR SPUN" TOO

Because it's "Air Spun" it's smoother and soft as silk . . . clings closer and stays on longer . . . can't cause enlarged pores. "Air Spun" is powder perfection—"Champagne" its latest, loveliest shade. In Boxes 2/- and 3/-

Coty "CHAMPAGNE"

—the face powder that stays on better.

Australia's Peril

The arrival in Australia of General Douglas MacArthur has created widespread interest not only in the United States, but throughout the British Empire. General MacArthur probably is the most popular American military man since Pershing led the Expeditionary Force to France twenty-five years ago. He was in command of the Philippine Islands when the Japanese made their attack on American possessions in the Pacific; and his defence of the Bataan area has gained him world-wide renown in an extremely short space of time. The only other military chief on the Allied side who can compare with him in prestige and popularity is the British General Wavell. The two men seem to have much in common, combining technical efficiency with that quality of imagination which so many soldiers lack, and there seems to be a consensus of opinion in Great Britain and the United States, as well as in the Commonwealth itself, that, if Australia is to be protected successfully against the Japanese, Douglas MacArthur is the right man for the job. He has transferred his headquarters from the Philippines to Australia at the direct command of President Roosevelt and at the request of the Australian Government.

His bailiwick will comprise the Australian continent, in addition to the Philippines, where Major-General Wainwright will succeed him as immediate commander of the United States field forces, which have been putting up such a good fight against the invaders. Of course, nobody in the Allied camp knows what plans the Japanese may have in mind; but the official view in Australia is said to be that they will attempt a full-scale landing in the near future. The propaganda mongers have been so busy of late that it is quite impossible to form a detached estimate of the general situation in the Pacific. Naturally, the Japanese are doing their best to keep their opponents guessing. One day it looks as if there will be an immediate invasion of Australia; the next it looks as if the Japanese will concentrate all their efforts on Burma; on a third a rumour is spread that there will be simultaneous moves in both directions. Yesterday it was reported that two Japanese divisions had arrived in New Guinea. The Paris radio announced that a Japanese armada, consisting of several cruisers, aircraft-carriers, transports, and fifty destroyers had appeared off the West Australian coast; but the Allied peoples have been warned to treat this story with the utmost reserve. Whatever may be the truth concerning the immediate plans of the Japanese authorities, there can be no doubt at all that Australia is in grave danger. The continent offers Japan a rich prize, and, in her present condition of popular exaltation, she may be ready to take immediate risks rather than wait until the Australians, British, and Americans have had time to perfect, or even to organise, the Commonwealth's defences.

It is quite obvious now that the burden of Australia's defence in the event of an attempted invasion will fall upon the Australians themselves and on the Americans. In the nature of things, the British hardly can be expected to do much in the way of direct or immediate help. The appointment of General MacArthur as Commander-in-Chief on the spot indicates clearly that the Australians are looking towards the United States for military aid, although there is no reason to suppose that their attitude involves any political conclusions. This war is indivisible. Just as on the "Axis" side, the Germans and Italians are sharing responsibilities in Europe and North Africa, the Americans and British, together with the Dutch and Chinese, are sharing responsibilities in the East. Substantial numbers of American troops already are in Australia, and it appears that more are on the way. If and when the Japanese attempt an invasion, they will be likely to get a warm reception; for the Australians are among the toughest fighters in the world, whose qualities of initiative and endurance will show themselves at their best in defence of their own homes, and in General Douglas MacArthur they will have a military leader after their own hearts.

Social Survey

Americans, apparently, are not alone in their love for compiling statistics of people's habits. The current issue of T.C.D.—A College Miscellany, contains the results of a social survey of resident students of Trinity College, Dublin. The survey was carried out by a small committee of undergraduates, who distributed a questionnaire to all students living in College, inviting them to give their opinion on a wide variety of topics, personal, political, and parochial. As a result, a mass of information was obtained, and this was condensed into a report which, doubtless, will be of considerable interest to some future historian. Some items of general interest are worthy of mention. The average income of the parents of the present students at T.C.D. is £754 a year, though the actual figures varied from nil to £50,000. No less than 25 per cent. of the students rate their parents' income at less than £450 a year, though, as the report puts it, "most fathers are apt to exaggerate their poverty rather than their wealth to sons of college age." The average estimate of students' own incomes is £80 a year, in which the cost of clothing is not included. It is interesting to note that 6 per cent. of the students earn their entire income, which proves that it is possible even in Ireland for an enterprising young man to work his way through the University à l'Américaine. The questionnaire also dealt with students' relations with wine and women. Although only 21 per cent. of them are teetotallers, most of the students are temperate in their drinking; 59 per cent. have never been drunk, and only 31 per cent. have been intoxicated more than twice. About 50 per cent. walk out with more than one young woman, 27 per cent. are faithful to one sweetheart and the others avoid the opposite sex entirely. An interesting fact is that the majority of men students prefer the company of their own to that of the opposite sex. This is usually because they find that the former provide more intelligent conversation, but the question of expense also plays a part.

So thorough was the questionnaire that even small matters, such as the student's time of rising and the number of hours of work he does every day, were investigated. The average student, it was found, rises at 8.51 a.m. and does 2.6 hours' work a day, apart from his lectures; before examinations, however, the latter figure rises sharply, and the average is 7.2 hours a day. Those who do least work at other times work hardest before examinations, in some cases as much as 13 hours a day. Most students are interested in games. Only 11 per cent. play no games, as against 42 per cent. who play three or more. For the purpose of this analysis only games of indisputably athletic nature have been counted; such pastimes as table tennis and poker, which appeared in a few of the answers, were excluded, and the pastime of "bowling along the roads with a steel ball," mentioned by a student from Tralee, was omitted on the grounds of illegality. As might be expected, students read many books not actually on their academic courses; some read as many as 200 a year, but the average is 43. Newspapers and periodicals are also widely read by students, and it is gratifying to note that the Irish Times is easily the most popular, being read regularly by 87 per cent. of the students. In reply to a question asking students to mention their interests outside work and games, many unusual answers appeared. Apart from the fact that 56 per cent. are interested in music, 46 per cent. in politics, and 35 per cent. in art, it was found that their other interests ranged from commerce to spiritualism, from archaeology to bridge, from chess to firearms, from stamps to anthropology, and from courting to—"the quest for inanimate beauty." The modern undergraduate is truly a remarkable character.

WEDDING
DR. JAMES TAIT AND MISS H. C. EAST

The wedding took place yesterday, at the Mariners' Church, Kingstown, Co. Dublin, of Dr. James Tait, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. Tait, of Hermitage, Rostellan, Co. Cork, and Miss Helen Claire East, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry East, Ballincar House, Sligo. The Rev. Canon Chamberlain officiated. The bride was given away by her father, and was attended by her sister, Miss Phyllis East. The Rev. Richard Wallace was best man. After a reception, held at Haddington House, Dun Laoghaire, Dr. and Mrs. J. Tait left for the South of Ireland.

FAITH MISSION

There was a large attendance yesterday at the Faith Mission—the annual conference and Jubilee Thanksgiving Service held for the deepening of spiritual life among the people—in the Minor Hall, Y.M.C.A., Lower Abbey street, Dublin. Short sermons were preached and hymns were led by Mr. J. S. Gillespie, Mr. P. S. Bristow and Mr. J. Watters at the afternoon and evening sessions. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McLean, of Belfast, who were to have spoken at the conference, were unable to travel.

NEW RHESUS BABY

By Our Animal Reporter.

There is a new rhesus monkey baby in the "Zoo," and its parents are the king and queen of the tribe of 20 which came in 1928 from Calcutta. This is the first rhesus to be born in the Dublin "Zoo" for many years, and the first to be born in the new open-air Iveagh Aviary, which has been inhabited in equal parts by rhesus and raccoons for the past two years. Put out as an experiment, both tribes did so well that they would now scorn to have a roof over their heads.

Mr. Cedric Flood tells me that shortly after the birth of the baby he tried to separate it from the mother, and was promptly and unanimously attacked by the entire tribe.

The female emu has now brought her total of eggs laid up to 15, and may produce more, but as the eggs are steadily becoming smaller, Mr. Flood thinks that the potential family will not extend beyond another one or two.

ST. PATRICK'S CATHEDRAL

The Dean has appointed the Rev. Henry Ballinacarrig Dobbs, M.A., to be Treasurer of St. Patrick's. Canon Dobbs has been Vicar of All Saints' Church, Blackrock, since 1914.

GATE THEATRE
"THE KINGDOM OF GOD"

THIS fine play is a treatment of the theme, now unusual, of goodness. It is a religious play, but one in the true, natural and acceptable sense. The goodness in it does not transcend our understanding: it is seen through suffering, good humour and humanity. It has about it something that the ordinary theatre-goer can appreciate and enjoy.

"The Kingdom of God" has no plot, only one character Sister Garcia, who holds our interest in herself, and the other thirty-four by the pattern of her life. It has three stages; its three acts. They are three scenes of testing in the life of this Sister of Charity. In the first she is nineteen, and attached to an asylum for old men. She gives her young life to comforting, as if they were children, these querulous creatures, and comes thus early to an understanding of life.

Her second stage, ten years later, where her duty is to bring sympathy and consolation in a home for the mothers of illegitimate children, is her most rigorous test. Here she has to struggle with her own womanhood, for it is here, of all places, that someone comes to her to speak of love. The conflict with herself is deepened into the big dramatic moments of the play, but she keeps her vows.

We see her once more when, forty years later, she is in charge of an orphanage. She is an old woman, and there are young and rebellious lives around her. Another test, indeed, but to her now have been added wisdom, courage, and motherly tenderness. She has been a nun for nearly fifty years, and knows all that these young people have yet to learn, so she can handle and quell them when the necessity arises.

It is upon this telling of a devoted life that Martinez Sierra, the Spanish dramatist of so much gentle skill, has woven an exquisite pattern to include, with tenderness all the lives that move around Sister Garcia to the making of her life and character. The play is full of lovely moments and the most delightful characterisation. It has, as well, a quiet, yet rich, humour.

The players all have nice material to work with. The Sister Garcia of Cathleen Delaney is a very fine piece of work, indeed, and particularly appealing in the final stage. There is some excellent playing, too, by Nora O'Mahony, Moya Devlin, Maureen Halligan, and Doris Cloghran; and some very finished small studies by Hamlyn Benson, Ronald Ibbs, Michael Ripper, John Izon, and Christopher Casson. A feature of the long cast was some doubling of parts by Moya Devlin and Michael Ripper, which was completely successful. Maureen O'Sullivan and Bonnie Fagan, with very little to do, made a great deal of it in the last act.

The production was by Gerald Pringle.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY
MASS AT PRO-CATHEDRAL

The Most Rev. Dr. McQuaid, Archbishop of Dublin, presided at the celebration of Solemn High Mass in honour of St. Patrick in St. Mary's Pro-Cathedral yesterday. Mr. de Valera and members of the Government were present. After the Mass the Archbishop officiated at Benediction.

The Mass was celebrated by the Rev. J. P. Camac, C.C., assisted by the Rev. G. Diffney, Holy Cross College, Clonliffe, deacon, and the Rev. P. O'Kane, Holy Cross College, subdeacon. Archdeacon MacMahon, P.P., V.F., Clontarf, was assistant priest, and the Rev. T. B. Condon, C.C., acted as master of ceremonies. The assistants at the throne were Canon Sheehan, P.P., Terenure, and Canon Dargan, President, Holy Cross College, Clonliffe.

The Palestrina Choir, under the direction of Dr. Vincent O'Brien, sang the music of the Mass, and the Rev. Father Michael, O.M.Cap., preached a sermon in Irish.

Members of the Metropolitan Chapter present were:—Most Rev. Dr. Wall, Bishop of Thasos; Monsignor F. J. Walsh, P.P., V.G., Glasthule; Monsignor P. Boylan, P.P., V.G., Dun Laoghaire; Monsignor D. Molony, P.P., Donnybrook; Canon Ryan, P.P., V.F., Clondalkin; Canon Talbot, P.P., V.F., Kilcullen; Canon Kelly, P.P., Berkeley road; Canon Kennedy, P.P., V.F., Enniskerry; Canon Connell, P.P., Blackrock; Canon Sherwin, P.P., Harrington street; Canon McCarroll, P.P., St. James's, Dublin; Canon McGuirk, P.P., Rathfarnham; Canon Fleming, P.P., Rathmines; Canon McGough, P.P., Dalkey; Canon Behan, P.P., Arklow; Canon Dwyer, P.P., Glasnevin, and Canon Hickey, P.P., Balbriggan.

The attendance, in addition to An Taoiseach, included:—Mr. Sean T. O'Kelly, Minister for Finance; Mr. Sean Lemass, Minister for Supplies and Industry and Commerce; Dr. J. Ryan, Minister for Agriculture; Mr. F. Aiken, Minister for the Co-Ordination of Defensive Measures; Mr. T. Derrig, Minister for Education; Mr. G. Boland, Minister for Justice; Mr. Oscar Traynor, Minister for Defence; Mr. P. J. Little, Minister for Posts and Telegraphs; Mr. Kevin Haugh, Attorney-General; Mr. S. O'Grady, Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Lands; Mr. C. Ward, Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Local Government and Public Health; Mr. P. Smith, Parliamentary Secretary to An Taoiseach; Mr. J. P. Walshe, Secretary, Department of External Affairs.

ST. PATRICK'S CATHEDRAL

St. Patrick's Day was observed yesterday in St. Patrick's Cathedral, where Holy Communion was celebrated at 8, 9 and 11 a.m., and two Festival Services were held. The 9 o'clock Communion was conducted in Irish by the Rev. Paul Quigley, M.A. The Dean (the Very Rev. D. F. R. Wilson) conducted the Morning Service. At 4 o'clock there was Festival Evensong, the sermon being preached by Canon G. V. Jourdan, D.D. The anthem, "Breast Plate of St. Patrick" (Jozé) was sung.

At noon, and again at 3 o'clock, a large number of visitors was conducted round the Cathedral by the Dean.

"Business as usual" was the order of the day in the North. Banks and Government offices, which normally observe the holiday, were open. Less shamrock was worn than usual.

KINGSTOWN OLD BOYS' DINNER

The annual dinner of the Kingstown School Old Boys' Association was held last Saturday in Ross's Hotel, Dun Laoghaire, and was well attended. The toast of "Ireland" having been honoured, Professor W. R. Fearon, F.T.C.D., Vice-President, in proposing the toast of "The School," said he hoped the school would continue to flourish. The Headmaster, Rev. E. J. Devlin, M.A., who replied, thanked the Association for its help during the past year, especially in connection with the School Sports.

Mr. A. L. Barber (Mountjoy School O.B.A.) proposed the toast of "The Association," and drew the attention of those present to the Association of Schools' Unions and the Union of Irish Schools, both of which he represented. The President, Mr. H. L. Morrison, in reply, said that the Association should bear in mind the possibility of being of some real assistance to boys leaving the school.

The toast of "The Guests" was proposed by Mr. A. E. Stokes, and Mr. F. J. Robinson, in reply, said that he had been a pupil at the now defunct Corrig School, then a rival of Kingstown School, and said that the success of the latter school was due very largely to the fact that the Rev. E. J. Devlin was carrying on the great tradition of his late father.

Mr. P. N. Murdoch, Vice-President; the Hon. Secretary (Mr. V. D. Wolfe, LL.B.), and Mr. F. MacDonald were also among the speakers. The following Unions were represented: Mountjoy School O.B.A. and Union of Irish Schools (Mr. A. L. Barber); High School O.B.U. (Mr. H. Booker), and Avoca School (Mr. G. Kennedy).

CRUISKEEN LAWN
By MYLES NA gCOPALEEN

POEM in five spenderian stanzas. By Myles na gCopaleen, M.R.I.A. Limited edition of 90,000 copies (of which this is Number 64,284) printed on hand-scuffled antique barley-grained vellum. Each copy signed by author and artist. Entered as second class matter at the Post Office of St. Louis. As read and recited by prominent Verse Speakers. "Here we have something that is alert, sensitive, taut."—The Bell

My song is concernin'
Three sons of great learnin'
Binchy and Bergin and Best,
They worked out that riddle
Old Irish and Middle,
Binchy and Bergin and Best,
They studied far higher
Than ould Kuno Meyer
And fanned up the glimmer
Bequeathéd by Zimmer,
Binchy and Bergin and Best.

They rose in their night-shift
To write for the Zeitschrift,
Binchy and Bergin and Best,
They proved they were bosses
At wrastling with glosses,
Binchy and Bergin and Best,
They made good recensions
Of ancient declensions,
And careful redactions
To their three satisfactions,
Binchy and Bergin and Best.

They went for a dander
With Charlie Marstrander
Binchy and Bergin and Best,
They added their voices
(Though younger) to Zeuss's,
Binchy and Bergin and Best,
Stout chase the three gave
Through the Táin for Queen Maeve
And played "Find the Lady"
With Standish O'Grady,
Binchy and Bergin and Best.

They sang in the choir
Of the Institute (Higher)
Binchy and Bergin and Best,
And when they saw fit
The former two quit,
Binchy and Bergin and Best
But the third will remain
To try to regain
At whatever cost
Our paradigms lost,
Binchy and Bergin and Best.

So, forte con brio
Three cheers for the trio,
Binchy and Bergin and Best,
These friends of Pokorni
Let's toast in Grand Marnier,
Binchy and Bergin and Best—
These justly high-rated,
Advanced, educated,
And far from facetious
Three sons of Melesius,
Binchy and Bergin and Best.

LONDON LETTER

59 FLEET STREET, LONDON,
TUESDAY NIGHT.

TO-NIGHT'S session of the B.B.C. "Brains Trust" included some Irish questions. Mr. St. John Ervine, Mr. L. A. G. Strong and Professor Denis Saurat were the guests, and the resident "brains" were Dr. C. E. M. Joad and Commander A. B. Campbell. Question Master McCullough mentioned that as Mr. Ervine had to-day eaten an evaporated egg for the first time, he might not be quite at the top of his form as a result. Professor Saurat had apparently only met one Irishman in his life, at Bordeaux in 1922, and was not impressed. Mr. Ervine's experience was that arranged marriages are nearly always as satisfactory as what are called romantic marriages. Professor Joad came to the conclusion that arranged marriages were certainly not less happy than marriages of choice or love, and said that one heard better conversation in Ireland than anywhere in the Western Hemisphere, except, perhaps, France.

Car Hiring

The petrol distribution Order of November left one loophole for the pleasure motorist. Journeys within a radius of twenty miles of Marble Arch and within a fifteen mile radius of the centre of provincial towns could be made in hired cars by individuals travelling for any purpose they pleased. If hiring a "drive yourself" car they had merely to sign a declaration that they would keep to the radius. Those making longer journeys had to sign a statement that they were doing so for essential purposes or domestic reasons and that no other transport was available. Mr. Geoffrey Lloyd, Secretary for Petroleum, announced in the House to-day that contemporaneously with the forthcoming cuts in petrol distribution he would abolish the "drive yourself" system altogether and curtail the hire service. Hirers will have to prove business necessity for all journeys.

Dearer Eggs

The Ministry of Food have agreed to an increase of sixpence per long hundred in the price paid for Irish eggs. They are anxious to increase imports as much as possible. Simultaneously Lord Woolton announced that for home-produced eggs he will pay the winter rate all the year round, instead of reducing winter prices to the spring and summer level. From Thursday duck and hen eggs will be purchased from producers at a single flat rate by count only, buying by weight and by grading abolished. Up to the present English hen eggs have been bought for 26s. 8d. per 120 for Grade "B" during spring and summer and 34s. 2d. during autumn and winter, giving an average for all grades for the whole year of 30s. From Thursday producers will be paid a flat rate of 30s. 10d for all eggs, whether duck or hen, big or small.

Candle Prices

The Board of Trade to-day made an Order fixing the maximum retail price of candles at tenpence a pound and the maximum wholesale price at 51s. a case of 72 lbs. The Order relates only to the ordinary paraffin wax candles with plain ends designed for household purposes. To prevent profiteering, wholesalers and retailers must, in relation to any sale of candles, bring the appropriate maximum price to the attention of the customer. Thus, wholesalers must deliver a note on the invoice that 51s. is the maximum price allowed. Retailers have to exhibit a notice in their shops.

Health Cards

The decision of the Ministry of Health to introduce yearly, instead of half-yearly, contribution cards for National Health insurance and pensions is in order to save paper and manpower. From July 6th yearly cards are to be issued, and half-yearly cards will be continued only in the case of juvenile workers. The main saving will be in clerical work, although six square inches of manilla paper a year will be saved on each card. As twenty-two million are issued, the total saving will be extensive, not to mention millions of envelopes which will not now be required. A number of detailed changes are also being made in the administration of the approved societies' procedure to cut down contribution returns and unnecessary forms.

AN IRISHMAN'S DIARY

Death of a Soldier

In 1901 a young Filipino insurgent major surrendered his sword to General Arthur MacArthur. Thirty-five years later the same Filipino, Manuel Queznon, now first President of the Philippines, invited his son, General Douglas MacArthur to return to military command of the islands, which he is now defending under circumstances which President Roosevelt predicts will win him "eternal glory."

But the circumstances of General Arthur MacArthur's death equal in drama anything that his son has achieved. In 1912, against his doctor's orders, he attended the 50th annual reunion of his regiment of the Grand Army of the Republic. Mounting the platform to deliver what he said would be his last tribute to his old comrades in arms, his voice suddenly faltered, and he dropped dead.

After a shocked silence, his old adjutant, who had been standing beside him, took the tattered, blood-stained flag of the regiment and cast it over his general's body. Then, piling drama on drama, he himself fell lifeless across the body of his beloved chief.

Paris, 1918

A very interesting paragraph appeared in the "London Letter" a few days ago, showing, on the evidence of an old grocer's bill, some prices prevailing in England in 1920. Sugar cost 1s. 2d. a pound, butter 3s. 4d.—when you could get it for love or money—and so on.

Now I am indebted to Mr. Leo Neary, of Chatham street, for a cutting from the Continental Daily Mail of March, 1918, which shows how little money could buy in Paris at that critical time. Let us take a few cases:

Veal cost 1s. 1½d. a pound in 1914, 1s. 11d. in 1916, 2s. 2d. in 1917, 3s. 7d. in 1918.

The very cheapest mutton had jumped in the four years from 3½d. to 1s. 11d. a pound. Carrots were 3d. a pound in 1914, 10d. in 1918, while cauliflowers had risen from 7½d. apiece to 2s. 1d. Soles started at 1s. 6d. a pound and ended at 10s.

Fruit generally rose to five times its pre-war price.

Sugar cost 11½d. a pound in those days, biscuits 5s. 7d., and jam 4s. Coal for stoves was £2 4s. a ton in 1914 and £14 8s. (a taxed price, however) in 1918. Household articles, such as brushes, linen, carpets and furniture were six times, laundry charges four to five times their pre-war level.

These prices were issued by the French Hotel Proprietors' Association, and presumably were the best obtainable at any given time, since hotelkeepers are able to buy in bulk. The poor must have suffered dreadfully in the Paris of 1918.

Beards

Apparently the idea still prevails that all thoroughly dangerous people cultivate beards. Even the city guards, asserts a bearded friend of mine, look sharp when they see a beard; but when its owner ventures forth into the country, woe and betide him!

My friend told me of his experiences in a country town not far from Dublin. He found himself walking the streets of this town before 11 p.m., carrying a rucksack. The beard, the rucksack and the time were against him, and when a blue mountain of law barred his path he was resigned. After many questions he was permitted to pass.

He passed—into the arms of some patrolling L.S.F. In the midst of their questions, my friend's 'bus (the last one) hove in sight. With a cry of anguish, he broke from his interrogators and made a dash for it. They dashed after him. . . .

He did get his 'bus, eventually.

Soldiers, Moryah!

There must be many elderly Dubliners who can recall an enterprising photographer whose services were in great demand about thirty-five or forty years ago. He had his studio on the canal between Rathmines and Harold's Cross Bridges, and each Sunday morning quite a large number of military-minded young men made their way there "just for the gas" to have their photographs taken in military uniforms.

The photographer had a large assortment of old uniforms of various regiments in stock, and all one had to do was to express a wish to be "taken" as a dragoon, a hussar, a rifleman, a fusilier or whatever you fancied, and, hey presto! the job was done.

Possibly these heroes got a kick out of appearing as a soldier without the necessity of "taking the shilling," with the possibility of being drafted to foreign parts and the inconvenience of taking part in "battle's magnificently stern array."

QUIDNUNC.

DANCES
GRESHAM HOTEL

Hundreds of Dublin holiday-makers ended St. Patrick's Day by going to dances last night. Virtually every ballroom in the city and suburbs was crowded.

The Gresham Hotel Supper Dance was a popular function, the following being among the large attendance:—

Judge and Mrs. Davitt, the Brazilian Consul, Signor Costa; the Japanese Consul, Mr. S. Beppu; Colonel Stanton, Miss Grattan Bellew, Dr. Oliver Fitzgerald, Miss Nancy Morris, Dr. L. Delaney, Dr. Crowley, Miss V. Roche, Captain A. Cullen, Miss B. Fagan, Lieut. Cotton, Miss N. O'Mahony, Mr. J. Walker, Mr. K. M. Collins, Miss P. Fitzgerald, Miss P. Norman, Dr. Connolly, Lieut. McCullough.

RED CROSS SOCIETY

The Irish Red Cross Society benefited by three dances, one of which was the Ceilidhe in the Mansion House, in aid of the Dublin City and County Equipment Fund. Mr. and Mrs. R. Henderson, Dr. Bouchier Hayes, and Miss Ronayne were among those present, and the committee were — Mr. J. McCann (chairman), Dr. A. Darley, Mr. J. McGrath, Miss R. McLaughlin, Miss V. McDonald, Miss K. Craven, Mrs. Keebles, Miss S. Graham, Maire Ni Lindean, Miss S. McGahan, Miss M. O'Connell, Mrs. McCorley, Miss S. Fitzgerald, Miss P. Flanagan, Miss C. Murray, and Miss K. O'Shea.

The Civil Service Dance, in aid of the First Aid Division of the Irish Red Cross Society, held in the Metropole Ballroom, was organised by the following committee:—Mr. H. McGowan (hon. organiser), Mrs. A. Hanman, Mr. P. Carney, Miss M. Devereux, Miss B. Buggy, Mr. P. J. O'Hanrahan, Miss M. Woodnutt, Mr. Michael Walsh, and Mr. H. Coll.

Wicklow No. 2 Division of the Irish Red Cross Society had a successful dance in the Grand Hotel, Greystones. The committee were—Mr. Thomas O'Neill, Dr. L. Finnegan, Mr. D. Frame, Mr. G. Kinlen, Miss E. Kinlen, Mrs. Huet, Mrs. T. O'Neill, Dr. Kathleen Finnegan, Mrs. T. Evans, Miss M. Loughnane. The attendance included—Commandant V. de Valera, Lieut. Owen Ryan, Major and Mrs. Smythe, Mr. Fiddler, Mr. and Mrs. Sheriff, Mr. and Mrs. McCormick, Dr. and Mrs. Roche, Mr. P. O'Connor, Mr. and Mrs. Gamble.

PROVINCIAL BANK STAFF

At the Royal Hibernian Hotel the Staff of the Provincial Bank of Ireland held a successful dance. The committee were: Mr. H. Topping, Mr. R. Franklin, Miss I. Doherty, Miss J. Doran, Mr. J. Gaw, Mr. E. P. Wheeler, Mr. F. Ballagh, Mr. F. E. Cole, Miss Carroll, Miss Knox, Miss Maynard, Miss C. O'Connor, Miss C. Baker, Mr. H. Williamson, Miss C. Dobson, Mr. Cecil Jameson, Mr. D. Bailey, Mr. Baird, Mr. J. Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fahy, Mrs. Boland, Dr. and Mrs. Collins, Captain and Mrs. West.

OBITUARY
MR. THOMAS JOHNSTON

The death of Mr. Thomas Johnston, J.P., occurred last night at Omagh. Mr. Johnston had been prominent in the business and public life of County Tyrone for more than half a century. He was Chairman of Omagh Urban Council from 1911 to 1920, and again from 1928 to 1938. He was also Chairman of Tyrone and Fermanagh Mental Hospital Committee for eighteen years, and Chairman of the Omagh Regional Education Committee since its inception. He was one of the founders of Omagh Academy. Mr. Johnston was managing director of the Tyrone Constitution newspaper.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Slack from Welsh Coal.—Belfast Harbour Commissioners yesterday indignantly repudiated the charge of the Minister of Mines that the amount of slack in Welsh coal imported into Northern Ireland was largely due "to the relatively primitive discharging and handling arrangements at Northern Irish ports."

Government Property Stolen.—So rife is the larceny of Government property in Fermanagh that Major Dickie, R.M., threatens to send future cases to the Assizes, where penal servitude can be imposed. Fines of £5 each were inflicted yesterday on Mary Dolan, Market street, Enniskillen, and her husband, for receiving stolen blankets at Irvinestown. Three workmen charged with stealing tools were convicted. One was fined £10, another £15, and the third sent to jail for a month.

Postmasters Conference.—Addressing the annual conference of Postmasters at Dublin yesterday, Mr. P. J. Timoney, President (Mullingar), said that they had experienced a time of exceptional stress since their last conference as a result of a serious deterioration in their economic conditions, brought about by rapidly rising prices and the stabilisation of the cost of living bonus at a figure approximately 55 points below the present cost of living index figure.

FUNERAL
REV. BRO. J. A. WALKER

The funeral of the Rev. Brother Jeremiah Austin Walker, Christian Brothers, St. Patrick's, Baldoyle, took place at St. Patrick's yesterday after Office, and Requiem Mass was celebrated on Monday.

Looking at friends and acquaintances you have often noticed that youth dies suddenly. You see a girl every day or every week, and then with a shock of surprise you see she is a young girl no longer. It is as quick as that! Look again and you will see it is her eyes that give away her age.

It will happen to you, too, But WHEN?

To put off middle-age in the future or to recapture the youth you have lost, be careful NOW. Eye baths with Optrex will tone up the muscles so that eye-strain will not cause ugly wrinkles. They will wash away the germs that cause redness, swelling and lack lustre dullness. Optrex will retain and restore for you the sparkle and freshness of youth.

Optrex is a scientific lotion for the eyes, recommended by Doctors and Opticians everywhere. It is perfectly safe—even for the most sensitive eyes.

Whether you wear glasses or not, you should have your eyes examined regularly by a Qualified Practitioner.

Optrex BRAND EYE LOTION

On sale at all Chemists at 2/3 (with free eye bath). Triple Size, 3/9 (without eye bath). Family size, 8/3 (with free eye bath). Distributors for Eire: Wm. Gaw, Ltd., P.O. Box 8, Dublin.

ALLEGED THEFT

Four people were charged in connection with the stealing of £2 11/- worth of chocolate, the property of Messrs. Tennant and Ruttle, Middle Abbey street, Dublin, before Senior District Justice Hannon, in the Dublin District Court yesterday. Two married women, Mrs. M. Campbell and Mrs. A. McDonnell, Lower Liffey street, were charged with receiving the chocolate, and two juveniles with stealing it. All remanded to Thursday.

A BAG OF TURF

On a charge of stealing a small quantity of turf, the property of Fuel Importers, Ltd., Dublin, George Pallas, 38 years, was remanded on bail by District Justice Hannon. He was arrested by Harbour Constable Daniel Foley, who brought him to Store street Station along with a bag of turf.

LONDON MONEY MARKET

Credit conditions remained surprisingly comfortable in Lombard Street yesterday. The clearing banks were again fair buyers of Treasury bills, and turnover appeared to be rather larger than on Monday.

Forward silver declined 1/16d. to 23½d., thus returning to parity with cash.

STOCK MARKET REPORTS

SURPRISE DIVIDEND DECISIONS

BY OUR FINANCIAL CORRESPONDENT.

THE London Stock Markets have remained relatively inactive so far this week owing to war uncertainties in the Far East, but the welcome official report from Washington regarding the arrival of large U.S.A. air and land forces in Australia has helped to steady the underlying tendency of markets generally.

The best feature is the continued firmness of British Funds, several of which have hardened fractionally. Home Rails are also being supported, especially the Preferences because of the potential good yields at the present quotations. Home Industrials are quiet and inclined to ease because of the absence of support. A firm feature is a jump of £10 in Cunard Steamship 5 per cent. Pref. to 119½ on the news that the directors have decided to clear off the arrears of dividends—viz., for 8½ years to 31st December last, involving the disbursement of £318,750. The 6 per cent Pref. has risen £4 to 117¼ and the Ord. is a few pence better.

The Dublin Stock Exchange was closed yesterday (St. Patrick's Day).

BIG DISAPPOINTMENT

In consequence of the steady expansion in receipts of the Canadian Pacific Railway during the past two years, the gross total for 1941 having reached a high record, while the net amount increased by more than 10,000,000 dollars to not much under 41,000,000 dollars, dealers in the Ord. stock had been fairly confident that dividend payments would be resumed for 1941.

The news from Montreal that the directors had decided not to declare any Ord. dividend for last year came as a shock and the price of the $25 shares of Ordinary stock yesterday fell from 11⅛ to 10¼. The directors consider that greater benefit will insure to the share holders through the further strengthening of the financial resources of the company than from a disbursement of current income. The increase in earnings during the last two years has been due almost entirely to wartime activity and cannot be depended upon as a true indication of future results.

They add that the shareholders equity will continue to be enhanced to the extent that capital expenditure and maturing obligations are met without recourse to new financing and the company will be in a better position to meet the unpredictable conditions of the post-war period.

The last Ord. dividend was 5 per cent. for 1931. The full dividend on the 4 per cent. Pref. stock in respect of 1941 has already been paid.

BRADFORD DYERS

The directors of the Bradford Dyers' Association state that, as compared with 1940, the profit for last year, before providing for taxation, showed only a small reduction. A large increase in the amount required for income tax was necessary owing to the exhaustion of the arrears of credit allowances referred to by the chairman in August last. To this is due almost entirely the reduction in the profit, which for 1941 amounted to £240,024, compared with £373,857 for 1940. The balance is struck after providing for taxation and £136,473, against £160,336 in respect of 1940, for depreciation. After deducting £44,419 for Debenture interest and allocating £31,221 less than before at £28,779 for war damage contributions, the distributable balance is £166,826, against £269,186.

The directors recommend a further payment of arrears of the dividends on the 5 p.c. Cumulative Preference stock for the 2½ years, absorbing £159,327, leaving £8,173 to be carried forward. The dividend on the Preference stock will then be in arrear as from 1st July, 1940.

Following the above announcement, the Ordinary stock units hardened to 8/- and the Preference units to 15/6.

CUNARD SURPRISE

The general dulness on the London Stock Markets yesterday was relieved by a couple of spectacular announcements. The first was the decision by the Cunard Steamship Company to pay off their heavy arrears of dividends (eight and a half years) on the 5 per cent. Cumulative Pref. The immediate effect of this was marking up to record price levels of the two classes of Preference shares.

The other outstanding movement was a sharp fall in Canadian Pacific on the announcement that no dividend will be paid for 1941 on the Common Stock.

There was some demand for Gilt-edged, and Conversion 3½ per cent. and India 3½ per cent. each gained fractions. British Rails similarly attracted little attention.

Industrials were a dull market, with Building issues again out of favour. London Brick lost 1/10½ at 44/10½. Associated Cement 7½d. at 45/7½, and British Portland 1/3 to 77/6. Cable and Wireless failed to maintain their recent recovery, the Ord. falling 1 to 48, while the 5½ per cent. Pref. were 2 down at 86½. Inter. Nickels lost ground on the reduced earnings, and Vickers fell 4½d. to 16/3.

The Mining Market was generally dull and featureless, and slight losses in Kaffirs were due to apathy rather than to any decided weakness. Oils were shaded off a trifle, Leaseholds being down 1/3 to 67/6 and Mexican Eagle 3d. lower at 12/6. Otherwise, movements were negligible.

OTHER EXCHANGES

MANCHESTER.—Bleachers 4/-4/3, Dyers 8/3-8/9, "Slubbers" 3/9-4/3, Calicos 5/3-5/9, Coats 34/6-35/-, Courtauld 32/-32/3, Dunlops 25/3-25/9, Cottons 28/-29/-, Velvet 3/9-4/3, Spinners 5/-5/6, Henrys 8/9-9/3, Turner and Newall 65/-67/6, Wall Paper Def. 23/-23/6.

BIRMINGHAM.—Motors firm. Rovers improved to 18/6 and Fords to 24/9. Hawker Siddeley lower at 11/9. Alvis 3/-, Austin "A" 15/6, Dennis 22/-, Dunlop 25/6, Guy 1/10½, Enfield 18/-, Humber 12/6 ex div., Leyland 64/-, Morris 30/9, Singer 3/4½, Standard 16/10½, Triplex 30/6, Pressed Steel 21/6, Hughes Johnson Napier 6/3, Raleigh 58/9, Rolls 88/9, 75/6, Lucas 67/3.

COMPANY NEWS

International Nickel Co. of Canada.—Net profit of 34,356,401 dollars, equivalent, after Preferred dividends, to 2.22 dollars on the 14,584,025 no par shares of Common Stock outstanding. This compares with a profit of 34,544,772 dollars (or 2.30 dollars per Common share) for 1940.

Vickers, Ltd., is to pay a final dividend of 6 p.c. on Ord. Stock, making 10 p.c. for the year (same as last year). Profits show a reduction compared with 1940, but since the figure given is after all charges, there is no doubt that a considerable part of the decline is due to the higher rate of taxation. The 1941 figure is £908,905, compared with £1,119,120, a reduction of £210,215. The directors propose to transfer £250,000 to contingencies, a similar transfer being made in 1940, and to carry forward a surplus of £690,786 (against £651,821 brought in).

WALL STREET

NEW YORK, Tuesday.—Opening firm, but quiet, the Stock market brightened on the more hopeful tone of the war news and on domestic developments.

The transfer of General MacArthur to Australia was a "bullish" factor, and the market closed firm. A membership of the Exchange was sold for $20,000—a decline of $1,000. Another membership was subsequently sold for $18,000.—(Reuter.)

FOOD MARKETS

CATTLE.

GLASGOW (MERKLANDS).—With the exception of 13 cows from Derry, all Irish cattle landed here during the past week were stores for dispersal to feeders. 1,226 store cattle were divided as follows: 422 from Belfast, 576 from Derry, 153 from Dublin, and 75 from Cork.

PROVISIONS.

MANCHESTER SALMON, GAME, AND POULTRY.—Seasonal increase in arrivals of salmon, but demand slow. Good quality Irish quoted 6/9 to 7/- per lb. Game in small compass; pheasants up to 30/-, partridge 4/- to 9/- a brace. Steady, but small, supplies of chickens. Fowls, ducks, and geese clear readily at 1/9; odd lots of turkeys 2/9 per lb. Hares rather scarce: brown 7/6, mountain 4/6 each. Good demand for the short supplies of rabbits at 11½d. per lb. (controlled price).

INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE FOR THE PROTECTION OF HORSES

The International League for Horses most gratefully acknowledges the following subscriptions, which have been received since the last list was published in the Irish Times. The work of the league is more than ever necessary since war conditions became acute.

There are now only two classes of buyers for low-priced horses, young or old. One is the International League for Horses and the other is, unhappily, the tinkers and gipsy-dealers, who will buy anything from a yearling colt to horses so old that they have not a single tooth left in the upper jaw.

These so-called tinkers are not even tinkers; they never attempt to sell or mend a pot or pan, but make their living entirely by buying and selling, swopping and bartering decrepit old horses, that should in many cases have been long since humanely destroyed.

During 1941, 335 horses were bought, and many bad cases were humanely destroyed without making any payment. Owners guilty of the cruelty of forcing lame and unfit horses to travel were prosecuted as well as having their horses shot. Large as this number appears, it might easily be much greater if funds permitted.

During this winter of 1941-'42 one of the saddest phases of the work was buying back many beautiful young thoroughbreds that had been sold for small prices and got into bad hands. Horses that had won races, well-known show jumpers, and many beautifully-bred youngsters were found in back-street stables and other haunts of low-class dealers in a pitiable condition. They were dirty, emaciated, and so weak from neglect and semi-starvation that they could hardly walk.

A more encouraging feature of the year's work is the increase of very poor owners who get into touch with the League when they are obliged to part with an old horse that has given them a lifetime of good service.

They could in many cases have got a better price by selling him elsewhere, but had sufficient good feeling to wish to protect a faithful friend from cruelty and ill-treatment at the end of his days.

We have never yet failed to save such cases from the horrors of the tinker's market, and we never shall fail if we deserve our reputation of being "a nation of horse-lovers."—Yours, etc.,

ELEANOR C. WHITTON.

5 POINT PLAN FOR A RECORD SEASON

To some people difficulties are stumbling-blocks. We of the Sheila like to think we are made of sterner stuff and prefer to regard them as stepping stones—to greater achievements. Year by year our business has grown. We do not intend to have its progress retarded by present-day difficulties. On the contrary, by putting forth extra efforts, and producing still better frocks, giving better values and increasing our customers, we aim to forge ahead more strongly than ever.

Z-318 — Distinctive and altogether charming is this Two-piece Suit in beautiful Randella Silk with raised Satin design in self colour. The Coat has white shark skin revers and the Frock is finished with red leather belt. In navy and black only. Hips: 36, 38, 40, 42, 44. Price 65/-

Other styles from 21/- to 4 gns. Hundreds of them—all new . . . delightful . . . fascinating—and forming one of the largest, if not the largest, and most beautiful selection of Frocks in the City.

FAVOURITES FAIL AT BALDOYLE

The Curragh trainer, R. Fetherstonhaugh, started the flat racing season well when he saddled the first two winners at Baldoyle yesterday. Sonneteer won him the Spring Handicap, and he won the Howth T.Y.O. Plate with Gay Sally, who was bred by her owner at the Middleton Park Stud. Always in a handy position, Gay Sally was shaping like a winner all through and easily held off the challenge of the favourite, Blue Sleigh.

Not a favourite scored during the day, and Alger, on which odds were laid for the Dublin Hurdle, hit several hurdles fairly hard and was no match for Mill Boy. Godstone fell at the preliminary and again in the race for the St. Patrick's 'Chase, and J. Lenihan had to be substituted as rider instead of E. Dempsey, who was injured when the horse came down the first time. There was a fine finish, in which Brown Cottage just beat Pontiff. Details:—

O'GRADY'S TREBLE AT LIMERICK

The feature of the racing at Limerick yesterday was the success of horses trained by W. O'Grady, who sent out three winners—Submarine, Border Knight and Bricett, the first and last named the property of Mrs. A. H. Watt. Each of the three won easily. Father Keating, favourite for the Greenpark 'Chase, fell after half way, but J. Lombard his trainer, had some consolation when Tamara won the O'Donnell 'Chase. Details:—

NORTHERN LEAGUE HELD TO DRAW

NORTHERN LEAGUE 2
LEAGUE OF IRELAND 2

At Dalymount Park yesterday 31,000 (gate, £1,650) witnessed a thrilling finish to the match between the League of Ireland and the Northern Ireland Regional League. At half-time the visitors led 2-1. Two minutes from full-time Dunne scored the equalising goal.

Fast though the play was in the first half, it lacked the vigour and excitement of representative games. The Northern forwards, combining perfectly, were ably supported by speedy, powerful, and always resourceful, backs. The League of Ireland defence was no less resolute; as a matter of fact, the honours went their way right to the interval, for the home forwards were an ineffective lot, the only one who played up to club form being Cochrane.

Immediately the second half opened the League of Ireland found their feet, and for 25 minutes the Northern Ireland League defence was subjected to an almost continuous pounding. But, as in the opening half, the home inside forwards let their team down badly.

The wonderful goalkeeping of Breen also entered into it at this stage, and but for him the visitors would have been a few goals to the bad.

The League of Ireland took the lead after seven minutes, through Douglas. Kernaghan equalised after 32 minutes, and two minutes later Lumbey gave the visitors the lead. As stated, Dunne got the equalising goal two minutes from the end.

HARD MATCHES IN RUGBY CUP TIES

CLONTARF...... 15 PALMERSTON... 7

The Palmerston forwards put up one of their most determined displays against Clontarf in the Senior Cup at Lansdowne road yesterday, but they tired in the second half, and a couple of snap tries put Clontarf into the second round. It was not an interesting game, but it was fought hard, and in the closing minutes Verso had a grand chance to put Palmerston a point ahead with a drop-kick, but he missed it.

Flynn kicked a penalty goal for Palmerston early on, but M. Williams, with a penalty and a dropped goal, gave Clontarf the lead. Palmerston drew level when Russell landed a superb dropped goal from over forty yards. Brilliant anticipation by Moran, who picked up a loose ball on the left wing and evaded two or three tackles to score in the corner, enabled Clontarf to go in front early in the second half, and a few minutes from the end Martin cross-kicked to the left for Mullan to win the race for the touch-down. Williams converted. Redmond, the Palmerston full-back, was the outstanding player in the match.

WANDERERS...... 7 U.C.D.......... 0

Better things were expected of the second Cup-tie, in which Wanderers beat University College by a dropped goal and a try to nil, but it was a very scrappy game. Without K. O'Flanagan, there was no pace in the College back division, while the forwards had an excellent first half, but they were worn down and beaten in the end by the more solid Wanderers' eight. The full-backs, Mattsson and McEntee, were first-class, but the only really dangerous attacking player on either team was Fox, the Wanderers' scrum-half, who had one of his best days.

It was against the run of the play when Robertson dropped a goal just on half-time. The try, early in the second half, came from a break-through by Fox, T. R. Horan diving over.

ULSTER SCHOOLS' CUP

Portora Royal School, holders of the Ulster Schools' Cup, played a draw of five points each with Royal Belfast Academical Institution at Ravenhill yesterday. The only score of the first half fell to Institution, the scrum-half, Kelly, diving over for a try, which Lindsay goaled from a difficult angle. For a good part of the second half Institution exerted pressure, but Portora lasted better, and their forwards, skilfully led by O. Duncan, made strong raids. Eventually Mitchell managed to work his way through to score at the post, and Duncan goaled.

ROVERS RETAIN MILLS HOCKEY CUP

Three Rock Rovers 3 Portrane......... 1

Giving much their best display of the season, Portrane were rather unlucky to lose to Three Rock Rovers in the Mills Cup Final at Londonbridge road yesterday. After 40 minutes' extra time, Rovers took the trophy for the third year in succession. O'Kelly scored for Portrane in the first minute, and T. B. Dagg, who replaced his brother in the Rovers' attack, equalised mid-way through the first period. He also got the decider in the third session of extra time, prior to which O'Kelly had struck the post from short range. In the fourth and last ten minutes Russell added the third for Rovers.

Railway Cup, Final—Pembroke Wanderers 2nd 2 (J. Doyle, R. P. Martin); Three Rock Rovers 2nd 0.
Intermediate Cup, Final—St. James's Gate 2nd 3; Railway Union 3rd 1.
Minor Cup, Final—Dalkey 4th 2; Cartonians 0.
TO-DAY'S FIXTURES—Schools' Minor Cup—Kingstown v. King's Hospital, Claremont road, 3.0 (J. Peterson and G. V. S. Ireland). Schools' Senior Cup, Final—King's Hospital v. St. Columba's, Claremont road, 4.15 (Major Mallins and W. Chiddick).

First Railway Cup For Ulster

(By PAT'O.)

Football—Ulster 1-10, Munster 1-5.
Hurling—Munster 4-9, Leinster 4-5.

A. Murray and his five forwards played inspired football at Croke Park yesterday. So fast and accurate were their passing movements that no backs could hold them. No Railway Cup victory was more popular in Croke Park, for Ulster have been striving without success for fifteen years. And their victory was most decisive. Munster's sternest defence was unavailing, whilst Ulster were good fore and aft. The hurling was dull at times, but a stirring last quarter roused the spectators, as Leinster rallied to set the score 17 points to 16. Moylan's final goal for Munster clinched matters in a thrilling finish.

The attendance was 16,200, and gate receipts £767 18/-.

The scorers in the football match were Murray, Gallagher, O'Reilly, Deighan (goal), Armstrong for Ulster, and M. Kelly, O'Gorman (goal), and P. Brosnan for Munster.

O'Donnell (2), Power and Moylan (goals), and Ring, Lynch, Barron, Stokes (points) were the scorers for Munster in the hurling match. Downes, McDonnell (2), White (goals), and Mulcahy and Langton (points) scored for Leinster.

FOR TO-DAY—
A BEAUTY TREATMENT AS PURE AS A DOCTOR'S PRESCRIPTION

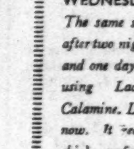

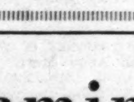

THERE is no complexion can hold a candle to the Irish girl's—and to-day, when smart women everywhere are trying to achieve the new, more natural type of loveliness, you come into your own! Do take the utmost care of your skin. Don't bury it under pore-clogging make-up. By day as well as by night, use a beauty preparation which will benefit and purify your complexion all the time.

Non-stop Beauty Culture
A 24-hour beauty treatment sounds a tall order till you know about Lacto-Calamine, which is so pure and of such recognized medical constituents that you might almost call it a doctor's beauty prescription. Calamine is the safest and gentlest possible substance for use on the skin. It is constantly prescribed by the medical profession for delicate skins and for clearing up minor skin blemishes. Crookes' Lacto-Calamine contains Calamine in its purest form.

Beauty Calamine is Lacto-Calamine
Lacto-Calamine is prepared by a colloidal process in which the particles reach a state of ultra-microscopic fineness attained by few beauty preparations. Afterwards scientifically combined with nourishing, emollient milk of almonds and soothing witch hazel, Lacto-Calamine is delicately soft and creamy, in a skilfully blending skin tone. • • •

TWIN-PURPOSE. Let Lacto-Calamine look after your skin beauty day and night. It may be used as a powder base, but many people consider it unnecessary to powder over its lovely matt bloom. Last thing at night, smooth in its gentle mikiness. No more unflattering stickiness—your skin completely absorbs Lacto-Calamine.

Through the microscope
MONDAY

A micro-photograph showing a section of the skin of a girl's face, magnified 104 times, before application of Lacto-Calamine. Neglect had caused skin roughness which appears as ridges.
WEDNESDAY

The same skin after two nights and one day of using Lacto-Calamine. Look at the micro-photograph now. It records no unevenness of the skin's surface, which is now fine and smooth.

SMART women everywhere express a decided preference for the KONERAY when they compare it with the old-style all-round pleated skirt. Knife-edged, the KONERAY pleats are graduated to taper off in unbroken lines to snug-fitting single material over the hips. They never gape, cannot come unstitched and are permanised to last out the skirt. Made in a variety of fine quality materials including Scotch, Cumberland and Donegal Tweeds, West of England Flannels, Authentic Tartans, Irish Linens, and Cream Serges, the KONERAY is obtainable from Switzers of Dublin and other good drapers and stores.
